FlexiTagger Instructions for use

Ensure that the female side of the tag is pressed into the female recess on the applicator.

CAUTION: Always immerse loaded tags in an antiseptic solution before applying. Use correct dosage as recommended.

Tag should be located as close to the head as practically possible, allowing room for growth if required.

With the correct position located, apply the tag firmly, always with the male pin entering from the back (outside of the ear).

